

The Academic Job Market

---

What to Prepare

1. Job Market Paper (+ Additional Papers)

Late October

- most important by far
- start early (little-to-no time to revise after Nov. 15)

What to Prepare

1. Job Market Paper (+ Additional Papers)

Late October

- most important by far
- start early (little-to-no time to revise after Nov. 15)

2. Website

Late October

- make it clear/easy-to-view
- smile in your photo

What to Prepare

1. Job Market Paper (+ Additional Papers)

Late October

- most important by far
- start early (little-to-no time to revise after Nov. 15)

2. Website

Late October

- make it clear/easy-to-view
- smile in your photo

3. Application Materials

Late October

- cover letter, CV
- research, teaching, diversity, & service statements
- teaching evaluations, transcripts

What to Prepare

1. Job Market Paper (+ Additional Papers)

Late October

- most important by far
- start early (little-to-no time to revise after Nov. 15)

2. Website

Late October

- make it clear/easy-to-view
- smile in your photo

3. Application Materials

Late October

- cover letter, CV
- research, teaching, diversity, & service statements
- teaching evaluations, transcripts

4. Recommendation Letters

Mid November

- ask early, but don't worry about deadlines

What to Prepare

- |  |                |
|--|----------------|
| 1. Job Market Paper (+ Additional Papers)  | Late October   |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• most important by far</li><li>• start early (little-to-no time to revise after Nov. 15)</li></ul>                                 |                |
| 2. Website   | Late October   |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• make it clear/easy-to-view</li><li>• smile in your photo</li></ul>   |                |
| 3. Application Materials   | Late October   |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• cover letter, CV</li><li>• research, teaching, diversity, &amp; service statements</li><li>• teaching evaluations, transcripts</li></ul> |                |
| 4. Recommendation Letters  | Mid November   |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• ask early, but don't worry about deadlines</li></ul>   |                |
| 5. Interview Prep  | Early December |

What to Prepare

- |  |                |
|--|----------------|
| 1. Job Market Paper (+ Additional Papers)  | Late October   |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• most important by far</li><li>• start early (little-to-no time to revise after Nov. 15)</li></ul>                                 |                |
| 2. Website   | Late October   |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• make it clear/easy-to-view</li><li>• smile in your photo</li></ul>   |                |
| 3. Application Materials   | Late October   |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• cover letter, CV</li><li>• research, teaching, diversity, &amp; service statements</li><li>• teaching evaluations, transcripts</li></ul> |                |
| 4. Recommendation Letters  | Mid November   |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• ask early, but don't worry about deadlines</li></ul>   |                |
| 5. Interview Prep  | Early December |
| 6. Job Talk  | Early January  |

Three Steps

1. Applications

November

- Goal: get an interview ( $\approx 1/3$ )
- Apply broadly (but only where you would actually go)
- Many schools use centralized websites (but not all)
- Keep track for admins to submit letters

Three Steps

1. Applications

November

- Goal: get an interview ( $\approx 1/3$ )
- Apply broadly (but only where you would actually go)
- Many schools use centralized websites (but not all)
- Keep track for admins to submit letters

2. Interviews

December

- Goal: get a flyout ( $\approx 1/2$ )
- 30 minutes mostly on JMP (prepare 2-3 min. spiel and 5-10 min. summary)
- Be ready to discuss other papers and teaching

Three Steps

1. Applications

November

- Goal: get an interview ( $\approx 1/3$ )
- Apply broadly (but only where you would actually go)
- Many schools use centralized websites (but not all)
- Keep track for admins to submit letters

2. Interviews

December

- Goal: get a flyout ( $\approx 1/2$ )
- 30 minutes mostly on JMP (prepare 2-3 min. spiel and 5-10 min. summary)
- Be ready to discuss other papers and teaching

3. Flyouts

January/February

- Goal: get a job offer ( $\approx 1/2$ )
- Job talk, back-to-back 30 min. meetings, meals (breakfast, lunch, & dinner)
- Most enjoyable aspect of the market

Advice on Interviews

1. Communicating your research in 30 minutes over Zoom (it's hard!)
  - Memorize your spiel but don't sound rehearsed
  - Be engaged/excited, composed, and be yourself

Advice on Interviews

1. Communicating your research in 30 minutes over Zoom (it's hard!)
  - Memorize your spiel but don't sound rehearsed
  - Be engaged/excited, composed, and be yourself
2. Setup: camera, light, sound, clothes
  - Make sure your WiFi works
  - Assess your background

Advice on Interviews

1. Communicating your research in 30 minutes over Zoom (it's hard!)
  - Memorize your spiel but don't sound rehearsed
  - Be engaged/excited, composed, and be yourself
2. Setup: camera, light, sound, clothes
  - Make sure your WiFi works
  - Assess your background
3. Scheduling: largely out of your control
  - 3-5 per day is optimal (keep some days free)
  - Try not to schedule important interviews first
  - Good times of the day (account for time zones)

Advice on Interviews

1. Communicating your research in 30 minutes over Zoom (it's hard!)
  - Memorize your spiel but don't sound rehearsed
  - Be engaged/excited, composed, and be yourself
2. Setup: camera, light, sound, clothes
  - Make sure your WiFi works
  - Assess your background
3. Scheduling: largely out of your control
  - 3-5 per day is optimal (keep some days free)
  - Try not to schedule important interviews first
  - Good times of the day (account for time zones)
4. Hard to predict if you will get a flyout
  - Keep pushing through and do your best!

Advice on Flyouts

1. Logistics

- Buy formal wear (tip: black friday sales, thrift stores)
- Book flights (tip: get miles rewards)
- Keep all receipts for reimbursement

Advice on Flyouts

1. Logistics

- Buy formal wear (tip: black friday sales, thrift stores)
- Book flights (tip: get miles rewards)
- Keep all receipts for reimbursement

2. Scheduling

- Try to have a travel day in between (not always possible)
- Try not to schedule your favorite flyout first

Advice on Flyouts

1. Logistics

- Buy formal wear (tip: black friday sales, thrift stores)
- Book flights (tip: get miles rewards)
- Keep all receipts for reimbursement

2. Scheduling

- Try to have a travel day in between (not always possible)
- Try not to schedule your favorite flyout first

3. Preparation

- Have a solid job talk that speaks to many audiences (listen to Dale!)
- Cannot really prepare for interviews and dinner (but look up who you'll meet)

Advice on Flyouts

1. Logistics

- Buy formal wear (tip: black friday sales, thrift stores)
- Book flights (tip: get miles rewards)
- Keep all receipts for reimbursement

2. Scheduling

- Try to have a travel day in between (not always possible)
- Try not to schedule your favorite flyout first

3. Preparation

- Have a solid job talk that speaks to many audiences (listen to Dale!)
- Cannot really prepare for interviews and dinner (but look up who you'll meet)

4. Attitude

- Be yourself, be engaged, be kind/humble, and be an expert on your research
- People want to see a thoughtful person with an exciting agenda
- Maintain strong mental/physical health (have a routine/exercise)
- Have fun! Enjoy the dinners! You will meet some nice, interesting people!

Tips (My Experience)

Navigating the Job Market

1. Keep your advisors updated all the time (if you do not know, ask)

Tips (My Experience)

Navigating the Job Market

1. Keep your advisors updated all the time (if you do not know, ask)
2. Be proactive to be considered by lower-ranked schools (you want options)

Tips (My Experience)

Navigating the Job Market

1. Keep your advisors updated all the time (if you do not know, ask)
2. Be proactive to be considered by lower-ranked schools (you want options)
3. Send personalized “thank you” emails (+ apologies when you reject offers)

Tips (My Experience)

Navigating the Job Market

1. Keep your advisors updated all the time (if you do not know, ask)
2. Be proactive to be considered by lower-ranked schools (you want options)
3. Send personalized “thank you” emails (+ apologies when you reject offers)
4. Hard to tell if an interview goes well, but easier to tell if a flyout goes well

Tips (My Experience)

Navigating the Job Market

1. Keep your advisors updated all the time (if you do not know, ask)
2. Be proactive to be considered by lower-ranked schools (you want options)
3. Send personalized “thank you” emails (+ apologies when you reject offers)
4. Hard to tell if an interview goes well, but easier to tell if a flyout goes well
5. Negotiations and return visits can be intense, but just focus now on getting a job

Tips (My Experience)

Navigating the Job Market

1. Keep your advisors updated all the time (if you do not know, ask)
2. Be proactive to be considered by lower-ranked schools (you want options)
3. Send personalized “thank you” emails (+ apologies when you reject offers)
4. Hard to tell if an interview goes well, but easier to tell if a flyout goes well
5. Negotiations and return visits can be intense, but just focus now on getting a job

General Advice

1. Stay grounded at home—don't offload stress on loved ones

Tips (My Experience)

Navigating the Job Market

1. Keep your advisors updated all the time (if you do not know, ask)
2. Be proactive to be considered by lower-ranked schools (you want options)
3. Send personalized “thank you” emails (+ apologies when you reject offers)
4. Hard to tell if an interview goes well, but easier to tell if a flyout goes well
5. Negotiations and return visits can be intense, but just focus now on getting a job

General Advice

1. Stay grounded at home—don't offload stress on loved ones
2. Keep living your life—exercise, cook, read for fun, go out, keep doing your hobbies, etc.

Tips (My Experience)

Navigating the Job Market

1. Keep your advisors updated all the time (if you do not know, ask)
2. Be proactive to be considered by lower-ranked schools (you want options)
3. Send personalized “thank you” emails (+ apologies when you reject offers)
4. Hard to tell if an interview goes well, but easier to tell if a flyout goes well
5. Negotiations and return visits can be intense, but just focus now on getting a job

General Advice

1. Stay grounded at home—don’t offload stress on loved ones
2. Keep living your life—exercise, cook, read for fun, go out, keep doing your hobbies, etc.
3. Take breaks, travel for fun/family (e.g., Summer, Thanksgiving, Winter Break)

Tips (My Experience)

Navigating the Job Market

1. Keep your advisors updated all the time (if you do not know, ask)
2. Be proactive to be considered by lower-ranked schools (you want options)
3. Send personalized “thank you” emails (+ apologies when you reject offers)
4. Hard to tell if an interview goes well, but easier to tell if a flyout goes well
5. Negotiations and return visits can be intense, but just focus now on getting a job

General Advice

1. Stay grounded at home—don’t offload stress on loved ones
2. Keep living your life—exercise, cook, read for fun, go out, keep doing your hobbies, etc.
3. Take breaks, travel for fun/family (e.g., Summer, Thanksgiving, Winter Break)
4. Do not think about what others are doing—focus on yourself

Tips (My Experience)

Navigating the Job Market

1. Keep your advisors updated all the time (if you do not know, ask)
2. Be proactive to be considered by lower-ranked schools (you want options)
3. Send personalized “thank you” emails (+ apologies when you reject offers)
4. Hard to tell if an interview goes well, but easier to tell if a flyout goes well
5. Negotiations and return visits can be intense, but just focus now on getting a job

General Advice

1. Stay grounded at home—don’t offload stress on loved ones
2. Keep living your life—exercise, cook, read for fun, go out, keep doing your hobbies, etc.
3. Take breaks, travel for fun/family (e.g., Summer, Thanksgiving, Winter Break)
4. Do not think about what others are doing—focus on yourself
5. There are truly no tricks/shortcuts. . . . all your work in the Ph.D. (your research agenda) is what pays off